

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS: NAVIGATING ICE VISITS AT YOUR NONPROFIT

An Essential Workshop for Nonprofit Organizations

Date: Friday, April 4, 2025

Time: 12:00pm

Location: Online via Zoom (Link provided upon registration)

Join us for a crucial workshop designed to help nonprofit organizations understand their rights and responsibilities if U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) visits their offices. Legal experts will provide practical guidance on how to respond lawfully, protect staff and clients, and develop policies that safeguard your organization.

What You'll Learn:

- Legal rights of nonprofit organizations during an ICE visit
- Best practices for responding to ICE agents
- How to create an organizational response plan
- Resources to protect your staff and clients

Hear From:

John E. Dubrule, Esq.

John is an attorney and co-owner of Dubrule & Nowell, PLLC. He is a graduate of Boston University School of Law and is a Cesar Chavez award winner. John founded the Immigration Unit at Gulf Coast Legal Services and left in 2016 to start his own firm

Pamela Fields, Esq.

Pam graduated from Stetson University College of Law and joined Legal Aid of Manasota in 2009. As the Pro Bono Manager, Pam is responsible for placing qualifying cases with volunteer pro bono attorneys, developing new pro bono projects, and recruiting volunteers.
